September News

Welcome! We have some exciting events coming up this month. Please check our website regularly for the most up-to-date information.

Wednesday, September 27,
6:30 p.m.:

The History of Scribner's Mill

Scribner's Mill Executive Director Cayle Johnson will present a short historical overview of the mill and its mission as a living history museum and historical site, followed by an open discussion of what events and programming the community would like to see at the mill.

Saturday, October 7,
2:00 p.m.: Book Club

This month's selection: The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo by Taylor Jenkins Reid.

Evelyn Hugo, a legendary Hollywood star, specifically requests that unknown journalist Monique Grant be given what's billed as an exclusive, final interview. The reason for this, and the story behind the seven husbands, is slowly revealed in a stunning, haunting story. New members welcome!
