

Kathleen's Reads—January

Non-Fiction

The Art of Home by Shea McGee

Popular designer Shea McGee shares her approach to creating serene and beautiful homes in this gorgeously photographed book, filled with practical advice.

Fiction

The Seed Keeper

Perfect for lovers of sweeping historical fiction as well as multi-generational family sagas, the novel follows the stories of Rosalie Iron Wing and her ancestors, seed keepers of the Dakota people. Rosalie was brought up by her father, who began to teach her the ancient ways of the Dakota people. Upon his untimely death, Rosalie was placed in foster care with an abusive caregiver, far from her home and with no connection to her roots, save for one other Dakota girl, with whom she developed a lifelong friendship, leading her back to her family.

Audiobooks—available on cloudLibrary

The White Lady by Jacqueline Winspear

In this intriguing historical thriller by the author of the Maisie Dobbs series, ex-spy Elinor White is forced to come to terms with her past when she tries to help a neighboring family. A suspenseful blend of historical and crime fiction.