We Have Started the Sustainable Library Certification Program!

This award-winning program provides us with a tested, structured path forward to increase our library's commitment to environmental stewardship, economic feasibility, and social equity.

Our team will take a closer look at how things are done and/or consumed at our library within twelve different categories, and assess how we might make changes to improve our triple bottom line (environmentally sound, socially equitable, and economically feasible). We are eager to begin this process, and invite you to learn more at sustainablelibrariesinitiative.org. If you are interested in joining the sustainability team, please reach out to Kathleen!

PLAY AMERICAN REVOLUTION BOOK BINGO

The American Revolution, a film by Ken Burns, Sarah Botstein, and David Schmidt, aired recently on PBS, who kindly provided libraries with related programming ideas. We'll be offering Book Bingo now through June 30; check off 5 squares in a row for categories such as "read a historical fiction book set in the 1770s" or "read a non-fiction book that includes maps" to be eligible for the grand prize drawing. You may read from our collection or your own, and we're always happy to borrow titles for you from another library. This game is also open to children. Stop by to pick up your game card!
